Docket Number: 1:03CR05132-01AWI

LEGAL HISTORY:

On September 13, 2004, the above-named was placed on supervised release for a period of 3 years, which commenced on January 6, 2006. Special conditions included a requirement for search, substance abuse counseling and testing, alcohol sanctions and aftercare co-payment.

SUMMARY OF COMPLIANCE:

Mr. Chavira has complied with all conditions and special conditions of supervised release, and has not been involved in any further criminal activities. Mr. Chavira's home environment is stable. He is currently attending barbering school full time. He has incurred no positive drug tests during his term of supervision. It is the opinion of the probation officer that Mr. Chavira has derived maximum benefit from supervision and is not in need of continued supervision.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that supervised release in this case be terminated early.
